MARTIN CULLUM OF BELL CANADA APPOINTED TO CABA BOARD OF DIRECTORS

July 16, 2002

The Continental Automated Buildings Association (CABA) is pleased to announce the appointment of Martin Cullum of Bell Canada to the CABA Board of Directors. Bell Canada was previously represented by Glenn Ward.

CABA is a nonprofit industry association that provides information, education, and networking to help promote advanced technologies for the automation of homes and buildings in North America.

"The addition of Martin Cullum to the CABA Board of Directors is a great asset to our organization," said Ronald J. Zimmer, President & CEO of CABA. "His knowledge and expertise will greatly enrich the value of the Association and its membership."

Martin Cullum has worked at Bell Canada since 1979. During his career he has held numerous management positions in Network Provisioning, Corporate Engineering & Standards, Technology and Business Development.

During the period from 1994 to 1996, Martin served as Director Business Development, with VISTAR, the satellite research division of Telesat, SPAR and Stentor. In 1996 returning to Bell Canada, Martin's responsibilities included the strategic and tactical planning of fixed Broadband wireless access services. Between 1997 - 2000 as Director - Market Development Broadband Technology, Martin's role included the technology assessment and trials of Broadband IP video services for both the business and consumer markets.

In his current role, Martin is responsible for Bell Canada next generation strategic technology implementation plans and service development requirements. This involves VDSL, ADSL, DTH satellite, home networking and application service technologies.

Martin holds a Bachelor of Applied Science from McMaster University in Hamilton, Ontario. Martin is a member of IEEE.
