STAN KUNKA OF SIEMENS BUILDING TECHNOLOGIES APPOINTED TO CABA BOARD OF DIRECTORS

September 10, 2002

The Continental Automated Buildings Association (CABA) is pleased to announce the appointment of Stan Kunka of Siemens Building Technologies, Inc. to the CABA Board of Directors. Siemens was previously represented by Richard Buzun, who recently retired as CABA Chairman of the Board and from Siemens Energy & Automation.

CABA is a nonprofit industry association that provides information, education, and networking to help promote advanced technologies for the automation of homes and buildings in North America.

"CABA is very excited to announce the appointment of Stan Kunka," said Ronald J. Zimmer, President & CEO of CABA. "His experience in building automation and integrated systems will be a great asset for our organization."

Stan Kunka was appointed President and CEO of Siemens Building Technologies, Inc. on June 1, 2001.

He is responsible for all of Siemens Building Technologies' business operations and activities in North America.

Prior to this appointment, Kunka served as President & CEO of Siemens Electromechanical Components, Inc. From 1983 to 1994, he was vice president of several Siemens Energy & Automation electrical power distribution and control businesses and, from 1994 to 1998, was senior vice president of the company's Industrial Products Division.
