Brian Casey of Honeywell Appointed to CABA Board

November 21, 2011

The Continental Automated Buildings Association is pleased to announce that Brian Casey of Honeywell International, Inc. has been appointed to its Board of Directors. Casey who is Vice President & General Manager for Cable & Custom Electronics at Honeywell International, Inc. replaces longtime Honeywell representative Roy Kolasa.

Ronald J. Zimmer, CABA President & CEO said: "We are pleased to welcome Brian Casey to the CABA Board. His appointment brings a high level of expertise to our organization, given his extensive involvement in the building automation sector."

Casey currently is a member of the leadership team at the Honeywell Security Group and is responsible for serving low voltage security, commercial and industrial HVAC markets.

Prior to joining Honeywell, Casey held leadership positions at Rockwell Automation, Schneider Electric, Vickers/Eaton, and Control. He has nearly 30 years experience in the commercial, industrial, and automation markets. He has contributed to multiple international standard developments including IEEE 802 (networks), ISA S88 (batch control) and ISO 61131 (automation).

Casey earned a Bachelor of Science degree in Electrical Engineering from the Milwaukee School of Engineering in 1988. He is a senior member of ISA, and served on the board of directors for Interest Group SERCOS and ICS.

"CABA contributes an important perspective to our industry, bringing a unique mix of companies, individuals and organizations together to advance the adoption building automation solutions," stated Casey. "I look forward to helping CABA deliver its core mission - advancing the state of integration of automation for residential and commercial buildings, with CABA serving as the preferred global source of information, knowledge and networking for the industry."
